News Release

GOREHOUND SOUND Grand Opening Friday October 03rd 2008
at the Cottage Bistro - 4468 Main @ 29th, 8:30pm - no cover charge

Gord "Gorehound" Smithers; guitarist and founding member of Vancouver's Psychobilly pioneers Flying Saucer recording artists "the Deadcats" is celebrating the opening of "Gorehound Sound Productions" Guitar studio with a show at the Cottage Bistro featuring Boomchix and special guests.

Gorehound Sound Productions offers private instruction for all levels. Specializing in Country, Blues and Rockabilly guitar techniques we also teach Dobro, Banjo, Mandolin, and electric bass.

Vancouver's Boomchix will be playing tunes from their debut CD "Surprise Surprise" with vocalist's Janice Dunbar and Barb Wilkins providing stellar harmonies. The CD features performances from Linda McRae and Paul Pigat and was co-produced by Marc L'Esperance. Visit us at: <http://www.myspace.com/boomchix>

As well as Deadcats, Gorehound shares his talents with Boomchix, Wichita Trip, the KonTikis, Twangzilla and Big Joe Burke, and is endorsed by Sparrow Guitars of Canada and writes "Gorehound's Roots Guitar Tips" blog at <http://gorehound1313.wordpress.com/>

Come out and enjoy an evening of Vancouver's finest Roots-Rockabilly music!
